Program Descriptions

RECskate Parent & Tot (2-6yrs)

RECskate Levels are taught. Parents must wear skates to accompany child on ice. Helmet with face cage is mandatory.

RECskate Preschool (3-6yrs)

RECskate Levels are taught. Preschool signifies daytime programs. Parents providing they wear skates will be allowed on the ice with their child during Week 1 and 9 only. Helmet with face cage is mandatory.

RECskate (4-15yrs)

RECskate Levels 1-7 are taught. Parents providing they wear skates will be allowed on the ice on Week 1 only. Helmet with face cage is mandatory for skaters 7 years and under.

RECskate Mini Power

Combination of RECskate and Powerskate skills are taught. Must have passed RECskate Silver Pre Level 1. Hockey skates and helmet with face cage is mandatory.

Jr. RECfigureskate

Must have passed RECskate Level 1. Figure skates are mandatory.

Sr. RECfigureskate

Must have passed RECskate Level 7. Figure skates are mandatory.

POWERskate

Powerskate Levels 1-8 are taught. This is not a learn-to-skate program. Full equipment and stick are mandatory except for Monday 4:10pm and 5pm. In these sessions helmet with face cage are mandatory.

Adult RECskate

RECskate Levels 1-7 are taught. All levels of skaters are welcome. The daytime sessions will be shared with RECskate classes but will be kept totally separate. Beginners are encouraged to wear a helmet.

Adult POWERskate

Designed for skaters that know how to skate but wish to improve their skating skills, speed, strength and endurance. Full equipment and stick are mandatory.

SPECIAL NEEDS - RECskate and Preschool

We encourage the integration of special needs children. Due to the volume of children represented in our programs we require one volunteer support person to accompany each special needs child. Should you need assistance in accessing a support person, please contact Kathi Plug. Please check "Special Needs" on your registration form.

Instructor / Pupil ratio is 1/8 for all programs.
